

Nobody Cares Like Frank

“Frank will continue to be a crucial advocate in Albany for the City’s budget, education, public safety, economic development and security needs. For many years now, I have known Frank as a hard working Senator, passionate community leader and good friend. Time and again, he gets results for Queens.”

- Mayor Michael Bloomberg

Senator Padavan is:

- A strong leader for our future who has delivered record amounts of education aid for New York City schools while increasing parental involvement and school accountability.
- A legislative reformer who has changed the way business is conducted in Albany and has made your state government accountable to you and has aggressively rooted out fraud and waste throughout state government.
- The author of the “Safe Streets/Safe City” program legislation and other key pieces of legislation that have protected our communities and help make New York City the safest large city in the nation.
- A sponsor of the landmark law creating and revitalizing NYC’s Industrial-Commercial Incentive Board and Business Improvement District program, helping to save and create hundreds of thousands of jobs.
- A recognized environmental advocate who has championed legislation to protect and preserve our environment and foster the availability of alternative and renewable energy today and for generations to come.

Delivering for Our Future

Over the years, Frank Padavan has dedicated his energy to ensuring that New York City schools get the share of state education aid they need to educate our children. In the past two years, alone Frank Padavan delivered an increase of $1.1 billion in education aid for schools throughout the City of New York.

Working side-by-side with Mayor Bloomberg, Chancellor Klein and City education leaders, Frank Padavan was one of the chief architects of the $13.1 billion five-year school capital construction plan that will add over 66,000 additional classroom seats and significantly reduce overcrowding in our schools.

Protecting Our Quality of Life

Our community is one of the best places to raise a family, start a business or enjoy your golden years. Frank Padavan’s commitment to ensuring our community remains safe and thrives today and in the future is unmatched.

Frank Padavan has strengthened the dream of homeownership by working in a bipartisan effort to enact a comprehensive law that will help at-risk homeowners overcome an impending foreclosure and prevent another foreclosure crisis in the future. He has also improved access to affordable quality health care by fighting back against dangerous cuts to our hospitals and nursing homes. Time and time again, Frank has secured essential funding for community, senior and youth programs and services.
